

Instructions: Mark all the correct answers. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. ____ People found that banks has gone broke by the dozen.
2. ____ In the evenings the grown-ups talked about families they said had lost their homes that day.
3. ____ He have admitted that from the start they had devoured every story that was published about Dillinger and his gang.
4. ____ His parents said he had eagerly awaited the morning paper to see if perhaps another robbery had been committed.
5. ____ Grandad followed Dillinger's movements on a map and was known to have cheered him on each time he is dodged the law.
6. ____ They had made lists of the hotels where he stayed, and of the police officers who had lamented their unlucky misses.
7. ____ The papers reported that the lady of the house, had snuck out a letter alerting the FBI.
8. ____ Agents is assembled and surrounded the buildings!
9. ____ By the time they got into the building, they discovered that Dillinger had escaped with five of his gang members.

Instructions: Circle the correct option to complete the sentence.

- His parents were fortunate to still _____ some money.
a. had b. have c. has
- He had eagerly awaited the morning paper _____ if perhaps another robbery had been committed.
a. and seeing b. to see c. have seen
- It wasn't unheard of to _____ your entire life's savings.
a. has losing b. have loss c. have lost
- Grandad was known _____ him on.
a. to have cheered b. have cheering c. to be cheer
- They were terrified _____ who their guests actually were.
a. to discovers b. to have discovered c. has been discovering