

Let's Practice!

Things changed when they got older.

Instructions: Circle the correct option to correctly complete the sentences.

1. For them it was the house that _____ all their memories until they left.
a. had held b. have hold c. was held
2. After they _____ fishing in the local river, pretending they were fly-fishing experts, they had often come back empty-handed but happy.
a. had gone b. have went c. are going
3. When they had found new secret hiding places in the area where no one could find them, they _____ for hours.
a. have disappearing b. had disappear c. had disappeared
4. Edward and Robert _____ to visit often, but as time went on, their lives became more hectic and time seemed to evaporate.
a. had tried b. are tried c. have trying
5. After their mother had passed away they _____ to convince their father to move closer to one of them, but he refused.
a. have trying b. are tried c. tried

Let's Practice!

The brothers are no longer close to each other as they had hoped to be.

Instructions: Draw a line to match the sentences in Column A and Column B. When you complete the sentences, read the sentences aloud with your partner. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

COLUMN A

1. There was never a dull moment in the Harmer household, if
2. If they were to have fought,
3. If anyone were to have described them,
4. If they were to have accidentally thrown a football through a neighbor's windows,
5. If things stayed the same,

COLUMN B

- a. they would have been in trouble.
- b. they always made up quickly.
- c. they would have said they were inseparable.
- d. they would have been more close to each other.
- e. the truth were to have been told.